CKEC is excited to announce the hiring of David Morris as our new Associate Director.

David Morris, current Chief Finance Officer for Boyle County Schools, has served as a teacher, principal and Chief Financial Officer during his 20-year career. Mr. Morris holds a Bachelor degree in Business administration, along with Master degrees in Education from the University of Louisville, University of Kentucky and Eastern Kentucky University.

Mr. Morris began his educational career as a business education teacher at Boyle County High School. He then served as a business education instructor at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in Lexington Kentucky. Mr. Morris began his career in administration at Bourbon County High School as Associate Principal. He then transitioned to Mercer County Intermediate School as an Associate Principal, before becoming the Principal at Hustonville Elementary School in Lincoln County. In 2012 he returned to Boyle County Schools as the Chief Financial Officer, where he will complete his ninth year. Mr. Morris resides in Danville, KY with his wife, who is a third grade teacher at Woodlawn Elementary school, and his two daughters.
